HOW TO REACH

- Flights: Fly directly to Tashkent (Islam Karimov International Airport) with Uzbekistan Airways from major Indian cities, or choose one-stop connections
- In-country transport:
 - Trains (Night / High-speed/ regular): Tashkent ↔ Samarkand ↔ Bukhara etc.
 - Shared taxis / "marshrutkas": Frequent between cities (when full) - common in Uzbek travel.
 - Domestic flights: Uzbekistan Airways connects e.g. Tashkent → Nukus / Urgench / Bukhara etc.
 - Car + driver / self-drive: Rentable, sometimes with large deposit, good for flexible Silk Road routes.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

- March-May & September-November: Pleasant, perfect for sightseeing and travel.
- June-August & Winter: Hot deserts; snow and skiing in Chimgan & Beldersay.

INSIDER TIPS FOR INDIANS

- Many Indian travellers benefit from e-Visa / visa on arrival policies (check current status)
- Russian / Uzbek language basics help in shared taxis; carry fare estimates
- Photography: In mosques / religious spaces, ask permission
- Dress modestly when entering religious sites
- Cash & cards: Have some cash (Uzbek sum) in smaller towns
- Use local transit apps (Yandex / local taxi apps) in big cities
- Book trains / overnight sleepers early
- Local SIM / internet on arrival for maps / ride-hailing
- Cultural patience: Uzbekistan moves at its own pace; take time to walk off beaten paths
- Weather prep: Pack layers - deserts get cold overnight
